CERRITOS TO STAGE SPRING FESTIVAL AND PET SHOW

Biggest Event of Kind Ever Held in Glendale Promised for Friday Afternoon

"Come and trip it as ye go On the light, fantastic toe."

A spring festival will be staged Friday afternoon by children of the Cerritos school.

This will be the biggest event of its kind ever staged in Glendale according to those who are familiar with its details. Rehearsals have been under way for several weeks and everything is now in readiness for the occasion according to Mrs. Annie L. S. Curtis, principal of the school.

The cast includes nearly every pupil enrolled in the school. Each member of the faculty has prepared a certain portion of the program. The sizes of the children, who will participate, range from kindergartners to those eligible next term for high school.

Meanwhile, there is considerable sewing in the homes of southern Glendale and needles are being plied fast and furiously in an effort to get all costumes finished in time. However, most of them are now ready and children are "aching" to jump into them at 1:30 on the momentous occasion.

To Crown Queen of May

The keynote of the whole program, of course, will be the coronation of the Queen of May, Mary Jane La Point. She will be crowned with a wreath of flowers by Geraldine Mangham, who will represent Spring. Following the ceremony Mrs. Virginia Freeman of 422 East Colorado street will sing Oscar Wilde's "Spring Song" accompanied by Mrs. R. T. Young of 469 West Oak street. Julia Steelman will be maid of honor and Peter Bancroft will be crown bearer. The queen's train will be borne by Jack Cleeland and Charles Chapman.

Pages will be William Kaser, "Bob" Johannis, Gordon Heald, Iril Heald, Peter Van Etten, Willard Markham, Paul Lupo and Clare Hedges.

Flower girls will be Marjorie Biggs, Ramanda Kennedy, Paddy Darling, Lella Jackson, Barbara

Excellent Program Is Given to Aid G. A. R.

"The Rosary" met a responsive chord last night in the high school auditorium in the hearts of white haired members of the W. E. C. and G. A. R. who were present in large number at the musicale given for the benefit of Patriotic Hall.

The 350 persons present were thanked for their attendance by Mrs. Priscilla Houdyshell of 308 North Orange street, who had charge of the sale of tickets. She also thanked the artists for their appearance and The Glendale Evening News for publicity. Mayor Spencer Robinson acted as master of ceremonies. A special number on the program was a group of Indian dances by Julia Pelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pelley, and Gould Moore, son of Mrs. K. B. Moore. Both were in costume. Each presented a solo dance and both interpreted the same dance together. They are pupils of Mrs. Pearl Keller Brattain.

"The Shooting of Dan McGrew," by Robert Service, was recited by Jack Lichtig of Thornycroft, who was billed as "one of the boys from 'over there.'" He caused much laughter by relating several humorous anecdotes.

The first number on the program was a soprano solo, "Happy Days," by Mrs. G. L. Peckham of 615 North Central avenue. A violin obligato was played by Miss Julia Robinson, 1234 East Windsor road. Miss Mildred Pray of 386 West Milford avenue, who later won applause for several piano selections, accompanied them.

The second number was two soprano solos by Mrs. John D. Cole of 122 Arden avenue, who was accompanied by Mrs. L. N. Haygood of 216 North Orange street.

Other artists were Miss Alta Aron, and Miss Bernice Waghman of 514 1/2 West Elk street, Henry Cantor of Waltham drive, Jacques Thiroux of Long Beach, who is staying temporarily in Montrose.

Several of these are pupils of Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Cavanaugh, who reside at 520 North Kenwood and maintain a studio in the Music Arts Building, Los Angeles. They presented several numbers themselves.

Honorable Mention Is Given to St. Mark's

A delegation from St. Mark's Sunday school, headed by Mrs. Phil Barnes, superintendent, attended the annual church school rally held in St. John's church, Los Angeles, Sunday afternoon.

Addresses were given by Right Rev. Arthur Moulton, bishop of Utah; Bishop Johnson of the diocese of Los Angeles, and Bishop Conduff Stevens. The rally was held under the auspices of the board of Christian education, Rev. Scovill, executive secretary, having charge.

St. Mark's Sunday school of Glendale received honorable mention as being second in having the best average attendance throughout the year.

Married Beneath Arch Of Roses And Greenery

MISS LOIS WEBB IS WED TUESDAY TO B. W. SHERWOOD

Ceremony Takes Place in the Home of Bride; Reception
Follows Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Lois Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Webb of 127 West Chestnut street, and B. W. Sherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sherwood of 357 West Broadway, took place last night, Tuesday, May 2, 1922, at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride, which had been artistically decorated for the occasion with pink and white roses. These flowers were also used to form an arch at the foot of the stairs down which the bride came and also an arch in another room, under which the couple stood during the ceremony. Rev. Byron Wilson of Los Angeles, superintendent of Methodist churches of southern California, officiated, the single ring ceremony being used.

Preceding the wedding Miss Hazel Linkogel, violinist, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Pearl Curran, played "At Dawning" and "Memories" (Cadman). Other musical numbers were given by Miss Gretchen Algeter, vocalist, accompanied at the piano by Miss Ruby Edgcomb. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Miss Linkogel and Mrs. Curran.

Preceding the bride, who entered with her father, were the bridesmaids, Mrs. John T. Jenkins, who wore a dainty lavender organdie frock with corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas, and Miss Helen Sherwood, sister of the bridegroom, and who wore pink organdie and corsage of lavender. Little Bernadine McKay was the flower girl, dressed in pink organdie and carrying a small basket filled with sweet peas. Winton Webb, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer. He wore a black velvet suit and carried the ring in a calla lily. The other attendants were the best man, Dolliver Webb, brother of the bride, and Lowell Perkins of Pasadena.

The bride was very charming in a gown of ivory silk Canton crepe with pearl fringe and other pearl trimmings. She carried a bouquet of delicate colored pink roses. Instead of a wedding veil she wore a wreath of silver leaves, orange blossoms and pearls. Her slippers were also of silver cloth.

Mrs. Webb, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black beaded Canton crepe with corsage of dark American beauty roses, and Mrs. Sherwood, mother of the bridegroom, wore a blue silk georgette crepe with corsage of tea roses.

Reception Takes Place
Following the wedding ceremony, which was attended only by relatives and intimate friends, a reception was held. The color scheme of pink and white was also carried out in the refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Sherwood left on a honeymoon trip to Yosemite. They will make their home in Glendale. Mrs. Sherwood has resided in Glendale for ten years and graduated from Glendale Union high school in 1921.

Mr. Sherwood has resided in Glendale about three years and is a designer and builder, with office at 313 South Brand boulevard.

BOATING PARTY PLANNED

The Philaetha class of the First Methodist church met last night at the home of Miss Helen Ingledue, 501 East Wilson avenue. On account of illness, a resignation as class teacher was presented by Mrs. Carl Seitter, 210 South Cedar street. This was accepted with regret. Plans were discussed for a wienie bake and a boating party at Echo Park.

Hey, You Scouts for Major Leagues! Lookit! Want Some Fat Ones?

Tomorrow afternoon Glendale high school will have its biggest baseball game of the year. Glendale will meet Pasadena high for a nine-inning game on their grounds at 3:30 o'clock.

Are the students all excited? No, not very. They seem more amused than anything else. Why? Because Glendale is not represented by its regular league team, nor its second team, nor its freshman team.

It is to be represented by a faculty team.

The students are going to get an awful wallop out of this game because tomorrow Glendale's faculty team and Pasadena's faculty team. Can you blame them?

Coach N. C. Hayhurst, who is manager of the team, has been working all this week on the lineup for the big game. He has plenty of material; it is just a question of getting each man in the logical position.

The battery has not been definitely announced, but will be Butterfield behind the bat and Smith in the box. The infield will be selected from Miller, Lockwood, Hayhurst, Nord and Borncamp. The three outfielders will be chosen from Brown, Fullen, Webb and L. Oliver.

It is reported that there are several stars on the team. Glendale's strong points are not simply slugging the ball and occasional sensational fielding; the team will emphasize headwork and demonstrate the ability to tighten up in the pinches. Several big league scouts will watch Glendale perform and may possibly draft some of the players.

It's going to be a good game; lots of spit balls, but let us hope no bean balls will be delivered.

Glendale Folk Guests at Five-Course Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mangum of Los Angeles entertained Sunday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Harris, Jr., Miss Virginia Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Guttard, all of Glendale. A large May basket formed the centerpiece of the dining table, and from this extended ribbons to individual May baskets, marking each place. A five-course dinner was served.

Quackless Duck Farm To Advertise This City

Glendale is to become the home of a quackless duck farm. D. E. Caldwell of 2520 San Fernando road, Los Angeles, has purchased five lots here and will advertise Glendale with his noiseless variety of fowl.

Maybe the neighbors won't kick, but the address of the farm is not given for the present.

COLORADO P.-T. A. TO MEET

The members of the Colorado Street Parent-Teacher Association, of which Mrs. E. S. McKee is president, will hold their regular meeting at the school tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. At that time the report of the nominating committee will be made and election of officers take place. Mrs. Townsend Clark, federation chairman of child hygiene, will give a talk on that subject. The small children of the parents will be entertained at the kindergarten room during the meeting of the association.

ENTERTAIN NEW MEMBERS

The First Presbyterian church will extend a reception to the new members who have united with them during the last three months tomorrow night at the church between 8 o'clock and 10. A musical program will be given and words of welcome by W. E. McCormick, response by Mrs. C. M. L. Nelson.

BRIDGE AND LIGHT PROSPECTS STIR ENTHUSIASM

San Fernando Blvd. Boosters Approve Efforts Made by Committees

Forty members of the San Fernando Boulevard Improvement association met last night in the store of its president, William V. Griffin, and discussed matters of interest to the neighborhood.

The report of the committee on organization of a bridge over the Los Angeles river at the intersection of San Fernando road and Pacific avenue was presented. This provides for the installation of fifty concrete two-light standards, nineteen of which will be burning all night, between Los Feliz road and Pacific avenue on San Fernando.

The committee in charge of this project is L. H. Wilson, 1034 South San Fernando road; A. M. Salyer, 1253 South Orange street; Roy Johnston, 1133 South San Fernando road; Mrs. M. P. Moberly, 1011 South San Fernando road, and William Griffin, 806 South San Fernando road.

Plans were made to extend the lights as far north as signatures could be obtained and to work in conjunction with T. E. Reavis of 1530 South San Fernando road and other property owners in having them extended from Los Feliz road to San Fernando road to the city limits.

As chairman of the bridge committee, H. V. Johnson of 121 Fairview avenue, reported that enough signatures had been obtained to the petition recommending the installation of a bridge over the Los Angeles river at Park avenue to make it possible to present it in the near future to the Los Angeles city council.

This announcement was met with enthusiasm by those present. Other members of the committee were Mrs. Moberly and Mr. Salyer.

The next meeting of this organization is to be a social evening. It will be held during the middle of the month, but the date or place have not yet been determined.

Mrs. Mildred Barnes Is Hostess to Class

The regular meeting of the members of the R. T. W. class of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Mildred Barnes, 1311 North Brand boulevard. Devotionals were led by Mrs. Sissy. The business session was given over mostly to reports, which showed splendid work being accomplished by the class.

A very interesting program followed, including a piano duet by Mrs. Ray Bentley and Mrs. Thomas Hoskings, "The Dance of the Demons" (Holtz); vocal solo by Mrs. Paul Elliott, "That Dear Irish Mother of Mine," talk by Mrs. Lina Carl on "The Ideal Mother," during which she gave two readings, "A Child's Poem" (Dunbar) and "Mother of Mine" (Kipling). At the close of the afternoon refreshments of ice cream, cake and punch were served, the hostesses being Mrs. George Harris, Mrs. A. Van Wormer and Mrs. Mildred Barnes.

HOSTS AT DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Baldwin of 1012 East Maple street were host and hostess at a very delightful dinner party at their home last night. Decorations of spring flowers had been attractively arranged throughout the house. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moran, Mrs. Margaret Kingsley Goodrich and Jerome Erickson. Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed and Mrs. Goodrich, who is a writer, read some of her latest work.

JAZZ UP GEOGRAPHY, PROFESSOR'S PLEA AT CLUB MEET

Man Who Predicted the San Francisco Earthquake, Says
School Books Need Life

"Geography from a New Standpoint," first making an intensive study of our own environment and then applying that knowledge to the environment of people in other parts of the world, was the basis of the talk given yesterday afternoon at the open forum meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club by Professor H. W. Fairbanks, Ph. D. He is a newcomer to Glendale and now resides at Tenth and Grand View avenue.

At yesterday's meeting several amendments to the constitution were presented by Mrs. John Robert White of the revision committee for adoption, chief among these was that which changed the entrance fee from $5 to $10, and which was adopted by the members.

An amendment which caused considerable discussion was that proposing changing the meetings of the club from every Tuesday to the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. No vote was taken on this yesterday, it being decided to have the question appear on the ballot at election time in order that all members might have an opportunity to vote on it.

Mrs. B. O. Holbrook, general curator, announced the following section meetings:

Literary, Monday, May 8, at home of Mrs. J. E. Sargent, 717 North Louise street; music, Friday, May 12; Shakespeare, Monday, May 15, home of Mrs. William Hunter, 107 East Lomita, who will be guestday for the section; drama section, Friday, May 5, at home of Mrs. Albert Perkins, 119 West Lexington Drive; parliamentary law, Wednesday, May 3, with Mrs. C. A. Redmond; arts and crafts, Thursday, May 11, at library, will continue study of lustrous china painting.

Officers Nominated

Mrs. Hutchinson explained in regard to the building permit for $65,000 which had been taken out by the club upon legal advice. She stated that nothing further would be done, however, until bids had been secured.

West Broadway Plans At Gathering Tonight

Property owners on West Broadway, from Brand to San Fernando road, and on Central one block in either direction from West Broadway, are urged to attend a meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at the garage of the Sunset Motor Works, West Broadway and Pacific.

The meeting is called for the purpose of discussing the plan to remove the "jog" at Broadway and Central. It is proposed to continue West Broadway in the form of an "S" across property, leaving a "blatton" at the corner of West Broadway and Central.

Many property owners have expressed themselves as being in favor of the project. The costs of the formation of an assessment district and other matters will be considered at tonight's meeting and a large attendance is desired by the committee in charge.

J. O. C. Class Holds Business Session, Social

The members of the J. O. C. class of the First Methodist church, with a membership of 150 active young women, held its regular monthly business and social meeting at the church last night. A short business session was held, followed by a social hour, during which games were played and refreshments served.

The class, of which Mrs. C. M. Crist is teacher, is doing a splendid work, and has pledged $600 to the church fund, $200 of which has been paid. They have also taken the support of four orphans in the near east relief work, which means $240, and are also doing home missionary work.

The members of the class are now planning a concert for May 12, which will consist of music by the class quartet, a short play staged by the members and a candy and fancy work booth, the proceeds to be given toward the near east relief work.

Combination Birthday Dinner Party Is Given

The home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Rowley of 334 West Vine street was the scene of a unique "combination birthday dinner party" last Sunday when they entertained a small group of friends in honor of the anniversary of their son, Robert Rowley, and Paul Johnson of Los Angeles. The former's birthday was on Friday of last week, while the latter's celebration came on Saturday. The fact that these two young men, who have been friends all their lives, are but one day apart in their ages is made more of a coincidence due to the fact that they were born in houses on adjacent lots in Sunland. Practically every one of their birthdays have been celebrated together, except during the time in which the young men were in the government service.

*Five votes spoiled.

TWENTY-FOUR TO ONE! That is the way the $600,000 Glendale Union High School bond issue carried in yesterday's election. Of 1851 votes cast only 75 were against the proposition of giving the children of this community a new and modern high school plant on the recently acquired site at corner of Broadway and Verdugo road.

There were 1771 votes—an overwhelming majority—cast in favor of the big bond issue and surprising as it may seem, the greatest support came from the communities which do not benefit as much as Glendale. Of course, pupils from Eagle Rock and Tujunga enjoy all of the benefits and the school is conveniently located for them, but their support was astonishing, as the figures show.

C. W. Young, a member of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce committee who resides in Eagle Rock and was active in support of the institution which he had served many years as trustee, said that the "one" who voted against the bonds in his precinct would be dead today if Glendale people who voted against the issue would attend his funeral.

About Unanimous
In fact, the Eagle Rock election officials were so confident that the bonds had carried they enjoyed their evening meal before starting to count the ballots. Then they had an awful hard time finding the one negative vote. It was really discouraging.

At Tujunga the prediction was

BEVERIDGE AND NEW ARE RUNNING NECK AND NECK
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 3.—Albert J. Beveridge, ex-senator and progressive republican, this afternoon was leading Senator Harry S. New, "old line" republican, by a narrow margin of 141 votes in the count of ballots cast in yesterday's senatorial primary election. Returns from 2,275 of Indiana's 3,384 precincts gave Beveridge 112,308 as against 112,167 for New. The former senator's sensational come-back in national politics was materially aided by the sweeping victory he achieved in Wayne county, one time progressive stronghold. This one county went to Beveridge by approximately 2,000 majority. New's lieutenants are counting strongly, they said, on a sufficient majority in Indiana. Polis and Marion county for New to overcome Beveridge's early afternoon margin.

BOLEN REAL ESTATE CONCERN TO SELL IN WOODLANDS

Company Moves Into Newport Offices at 115 W. Broadway to Handle Big Tract

The Bolen Realty Company is moving its offices from 206 West Broadway to 115 West Broadway to the F. P. Newport Company's headquarters for Verdugo Woodlands subdivision, according to an announcement today by J. L. Bolen, head of the firm, who also is president of the Verdugo Woodlands Improvement Association.

While the Bolen Realty Company will specialize on Verdugo Woodlands improved and vacant property, including sales, as well as the F. P. Newport Company tract, it will continue the general real estate and insurance business so successfully conducted at the former address.

Mr. Bolen is vitally interested in the Woodlands, having bought a home there many months ago and being counted as a leading spirit in the community. He is especially anxious that residents of Glendale acquaint themselves with this beautiful hillside and canyon spot, for to him it is a matter of pride.

Plans Excursion Sunday
On account of the large sale of lots the past two Sundays since a new subdivision has been placed on the market, the F. P. Newport Company plans to run another excursion from Los Angeles this coming Sunday and a Spanish luncheon will be served all guests, according to W. L. Twining, general manager.

Mr. Bolen invites all of those who will motor out to the tract from Glendale and enjoy the day in the hills to telephone Glendale 2163 and make reservations for the luncheon. It will be sort of a get-acquainted affair and you are sure to find some one from "back East" whom you know among the happy crowd of tourists who will make the excursion trip, according to Mr. Bolen.

All that is necessary is to phone him Friday or Saturday, and Sunday noon after church motor out Glendale avenue or Verdugo road to Canada boulevard and thence to Hermosita drive and Ramona avenue where the luncheon is served in the new California pavilion.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Inspiring to the Glendalians
Fish, Fishing, Fishermen
How One Editor Caught His Mothers' Day, Sunday, May 14
By Gil A. Cowan

INSPIRATION for a Greater Glendale may be found in the May issue of The Glendalians, the official Chamber of Commerce publication which is being received by members this week.

Here are a few paragraphs which are worth the attention of every person in Glendale:
"Letters to friends elsewhere—and there are thousands going forth daily—conversations with those one meets while traveling or with visitors in Glendale—telling what Glendale is, what it offers to the home-seeker or the new merchant and manufacturer—these involve no particular effort on the part of any one individual and yet in their collective 'punch' they would be of inestimable value."

"It has been shown that eighty per cent of the industrial pipeworkers of the industrial plants located in the state came as the result of a pleasure trip of some official. Ninety per cent of our increased population comes originally for pleasure."

"ARE WE GETTING OUR SHARE?"

"A dollar spent away from home never helps to build your city, increase the value of your property, or increase civic building."

Fish! Fish! Fish!
It isn't Friday, either, but fish is so prevalent that some unkind person is apt to call it a malady.

Everybody, it would seem, either has gone fishing, is fishing, is going fishing, or knows somebody who was, is, or will be, etc.

The opening of the season in Southern California is not unlike unloosing the flood gates to the river of contentment.

Look at the list of those who are fishing and you find everyone enjoys the sport which made Izaak Walton famous and a lot more infamous for their tales of fish and fancies.

Surely there is nothing more distracting than the Call of the Open Road with a fish pond at the end of the highway or by-way.

So, let's go fishing!

One newspaper editor from another city tells how he has been able to enjoy the results of others' catches. He offered a prize for the biggest fish brought to his office.

For the one measly prize—a hand crocheted canteen, or something equally useless—he had fish for breakfast, fish for dinner and fish for supper, too.

Of course, he said nice things about his fisher friends and they had more fish than they needed. So it was perfectly alright with everybody.

Sunday, May 14, has been proclaimed Mothers' Day in the state of California by Governor William D. Stephens.

All churches and religious organizations have been called upon to observe the day with appropriate programs.

Trust to that. Every mother's son of a minister, chorister, layman, etc., will see to it that she gets full honor and glory for the part played by her in world affairs.

Gratifying, indeed, are the results of the Glendale Union High school election.

Almost twenty-four people voted for the $600,000 issue against every one who voted against it.

It is to be questioned whether any greater community co-operation could be found in the country.

However, had anyone suggested two years ago it were to be possible in 1922 there is no doubt but what a laugh might have met the suggestion.

The elements of progress and prosperity surely do enter into the successful culmination of any plans and the school system is no exception to the rule.

W. C. T. U. TO HOLD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Glendale Women's Christian Temperance Union, of which Mrs. Ruby Smart is president, will be held in the parlors of the First Baptist church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is anticipated that a large attendance will be present, as at that time reports will be made on the county convention recently held in Los Angeles and plans made for the state convention to be held in Glendale the latter part of May.

Of Special Interest to Voters in the Glendale Union High School District

Gentlemen:

A part of the acreage purchased with the fund made available by the recent Bond Issue for the new Glendale Union High School site was purchased from Mr. I. C. Leggitt, and when the options were secured from the various land owners, the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce secured the option from Mr. Leggitt which contained a proviso, reading as follows:

"This option carries with it the agreement that the School Board is to open a sixty foot street from Broadway to Colorado, and I. C. Leggitt agrees to donate one-half of said street as far as his property goes, each one paying his part of all expenses, including water mains, said street to be opened in a reasonable time."

There was some little delay in arranging for the election and the option had to be renewed, and when this was done there appeared on the renewal the following statement in Mr. Leggitt's handwriting:

"This extension is on condition that the school street from Colorado to Broadway will be opened within ninety days from time of election."

It is very evident that Mr. Leggitt is desirous of having this road cut through between Colorado Boulevard and Broadway.

My residence at 1510 East Broadway adjoins the High School site, and would be on the corner of this projected street and East Broadway, and I have expressed myself as opposed to opening this street, because I had no intention when I built my house 120 feet back from the road of having it close to any street, and both Mrs. Harrower and I have felt that such a road would be a detriment to our seclusion and quiet.

It has been said that my interest in this matter is a selfish one, and I admit it. It is also very clear that the underlying reason for the notations on both of the options given by Mr. Leggitt to the Union High School Board was concerned with subdividing his property, which would face upon this projected street and, like my own reason, was a selfish one.

Now, the High School Board, by force of circumstances, had to accept the options given to them with the reiterated proviso, and I understand that officially they have agreed to dedicate to the city a strip of land which will make possible the opening of the above projected street.

It is now for the Honorable City Council to decide whether the opening of such a street would be in the public interest, and since you are the court of last resort in this matter, I AM APPEALING TO YOU TO REFUSE TO ACCEPT the dedicated land north of the projected extension of Harvard street, admitting that one of my reasons for doing this is the selfish one mentioned above.

However, there is another and very much more important reason to which I want to call public attention: From the standpoint of the High School authorities, there is no need for such a street, and I understand that the members of the Board are not in favor of the street, at least in so far as any advantage which might come to the school from cutting it through. They are merely willing to accede to the demand of Mr. Leggitt because they had to accept his option with this proviso.

Such a street approximately 1100 feet long will take from the High School site a minimum of one acre of land, and I understand that the cash value of this land is between $4,000.00 and $5,000.00.

Such a street will involve the High School Board in an expenditure for their share of a standard fifty-foot street, (Mr. Leggitt asks for a sixty-foot street) including curbs, sidewalk and a four-inch water main, of approximately $3.00 a foot. (I understand that a road might be cut through at a cost of approximately $5.95 per running foot). This means an additional expenditure of High School funds of at least $3,000.00.

Summing the matter up, THE PEOPLE OF THE GLENDALE HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT ARE ASKED TO SPEND FULLY $7,000.00 IN MONEY AND TO RELINQUISH 1-20TH OF THE TERRITORY PURCHASED FOR A HIGH SCHOOL SITE, IN ORDER TO ACCOMMODATE MR. LEGGITT IN HIS SUBDIVISION PLAN.

I contend that the interests of the majority are greater than those of the individual, and that under the circumstances outlined—and I think I have been very fair in my comments and reasonable in my figures—if Mr. Leggitt is not willing to withdraw his demand upon the Glendale Union High School Board, then I publicly request you, as members of the Glendale City Council, to refuse to accept the dedicated property and thus relieve the tax payers who contribute to the Glendale Union High School District fund of at least $5,000 of the above unnecessary investment.

I submit this not for my personal selfish reasons alone, but in the interest of the whole, which will be quite obvious to you, and I feel that I am quite justified in my conclusions and in making the above request.

Respectfully Submitted,
April 27, 1922.

HENRY R. HARROWER, M. D.

High School Bonds Win by Great Vote

the way of physical equipment for higher education.

The election was most timely, in view of the great amount of building now under way and realty activity reaching new heights. The spirit of confidence in the future of Glendale was evidenced on every hand and the erection of the school buildings will mean another great step in the city's progress.

Shows Appreciation

"The election doesn't leave any doubt as to the intentions of the people," stated George U. Moyse, principal of Glendale Union High school, as soon as the decisive victory of the bonds had become apparent. "It shows that the people appreciate the local situation. The bigger thing it shows is the great appreciation people have for good schools and splendid facilities for the education of young people."

"At the present time we are entirely unable to care for the pupils and the people want the most rapid progress made in changing these conditions so that the young people can have the best facilities for their education."

"I am wonderfully satisfied with the election. It shows the quality of patronage behind the schools."

Dr. Harry V. Brown of 144 North Orange street, president of the board of trustees, also is much elated by the result of the election.

"It is a complete endorsement of public opinion on the matter," he remarked. "There is no question but that the people are fairly cognizant with the high school situation. They want the program to go straight through. There is nothing that I know of to delay the work on the new school now."

H. W. Yarek of 247 West Wilson avenue, member of the board of trustees, was equally pleased. When asked how he interpreted the election, he replied:

"The people want the new school; there is only one way to look at it. The vote is gratifying to the school board. I think before long we will see some action."

The next meeting of the high school board of trustees will be held Saturday afternoon for the purpose of reorganizing.

HEALTH-AGAIN
TALKS
By Dr. Otey

With the possible exception of religion there is no department of life around which there centers more mystery or in which there are more conflicting theories and contrasting practices than in the department of our sexual life.

It is not so much that there is a lack of knowledge on this subject, but a lack of distribution of it.
The average lay reader who attempts to sail the immense sea of our literature on sex without a chart and compass soon runs into so many shallow places, eddies, counter currents and what to him are uncharted rocks that he is confused and discouraged from further study.

He will have mental indigestion when he attempts to digest a literary salad of articles by reformers, legal experts, social cranks, moral and mental perversities and the myriads of conflicting teachings of the various and sundry metaphysical cults and the multitudinous religious sects.

He is blinded to the true facts of physiology and hygiene and finds himself floundering in a sea of superstition.

If one has it in mind to acquire some real knowledge, either specific or general, he should take his problems to some one who has a sane conception of the subject and whose opinions are not influenced by his likes and dislikes, preconceived notions and hearsay nor by religious or sentimental scruples, but are founded on facts as unbiased scientific investigation has revealed them. Reading should be confined to books that are free from piffle. I will be glad to advise, or recommend suitable books. You may arrange for consultation by phoning Glendale 2201.

both the fish, the picture and Olin snapped the picture on the banks of Big Bear.

Rene Olin, accountant, with offices in the Chamber of Commerce building; C. H. Kirkman, stationer at 141 South Brand boulevard, and "Bob"
Ford, salesman with Tanner & Hall's Buick agency, were the first Glendale party to report catching the limit of fish.

They went to Big Bear where there still is snow on the mountains and after making a snow man, etc., got busy with the rods and reels and hauled in one rainbow trout after another. Mr. Olin took so many pictures that it was difficult to select one, but Mr. Kirkman, being a neighbor of The Glendale Evening News and permitting the writer to look at one of the fish, gets the honor place.
Yet don't think for a minute that this is all to be told about the chief divertisement of sportive Glendal-you would learn that.

JAZZ UP GEOGRAPHY, PROFESSOR'S PLEA AT CLUB MEET

Man Who Predicted the San Francisco Earthquake, Says

and the club members authorized construction.

Mrs. O. E. Von Oven of the nominating committee submitted the report of the names of nominees for the various offices, as follows: Mrs. A. H.
Campbell, president; Mrs. A. H.
Montgomery and Mrs. Warren Roberts, first vice-president; Mrs. C. W.
Houston, second vice-president; Mrs.
John Dunn, recording secretary;
Mrs. Frank Avars, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. E. Plasterer, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, Mrs. Colin Cable, Mrs. J. T. Crampton and Mrs.
C. J. Newcomb, directors.

Mrs. Mabel Rudy spoke in regard to communication received from the Mission Play, announcing special rates to the club members and friends at the matinee tomorrow afternoon. A number of the women are planning to attend.

Professor Fairbanks, who gave a very interesting talk on geography, has traveled many hundred miles on foot in the mountains of California and found the Pacific coast "fault," and also predicted the San Francisco earthquake. It is stated that he was the winner of the world prize as being the best authority on physical geography, in competition with all of the famous geographers of the world.

New Approach to Subject

A new viewpoint of school geography was given by Mr. Fairbanks, who explained his working out an absolutely new approach to the subject.
He stated in part as follows:

"We all can feel that geography, a subject which uses perhaps one-sixth of all of the time in the elementary schools, deserves our earnest consideration. When we look back into our school lives we find that the subject is not productive of the results it should be. It is a subject which should give us a sympathetic understanding of the people of the world, but we too often find it a dry study of mere facts. Geography does not consist in learning tables of facts and we should get away from that lifeless view of the world and acquire a sympathetic and personal insight as to what is going on.

"Of all the subjects taught in the schools none, perhaps, result in so little permanent value and real education as geography. Too often the children memorize facts about various countries and then forget them.
Geography should be taught by learning the causes and relationships between the facts. The child should first have an intelligent conception of the environment in which they live and then with this knowledge lead up to studying similar elements and conditions of other countries. By understanding their immediate environment they can reason out the causes of many things relating to other countries, with the aid of a the relationship of certain facts, such as climate, accessibility, topography, etc., what industries will be found in certain localities and the logical places for the settlement of large cities.

To Get More Life

"The new geography attempts to get away from the dead, lifeless, almost meaningless tables of facts and takes the children, through the use of their imagination and reasoning, to various parts of the world and teaches them how the people live."

At the close of his talk on Geography, Professor Fairbanks was questioned regarding the earthquake rift and stated that there are no indications of any "fault" movement along the foot of the mountains back of Glendale. The rift of the earth in the southern part of the state is a good distance from here and is to be found along the Ridge Route and Calton Pass, he stated.

Mrs. Hutchinson announced the state convention of women's clubs beginning in Los Angeles today and continuing through Saturday afternoon, to which all of the members of the club are eligible to attend.

More Than Hundred Girls Attend Circle

The Christian Circle club met last night at the Baptist church with 104 girls in attendance. Dinner was served by the women of the Christian church. It was seniors' night and they were the guests of honor.
Next week the juniors will be the guests and they promised something more lively in the way of spirit than that showed by the seniors.

The Rev. Harley G. Preston and Mrs. F. W. Collins also were guests and the latter spoke briefly on the work being done for the Arkansas hillbillies by the John Brown college. Miss Soper taught the regular Bible lesson. May 25 was announced as the first anniversary of the club.

Tagging All Bases

News Item—George Mogridge, well known and respected citizen of Washington brutally assaulted by strong arm men in Philadelphia. Four home runs in four innings, three in a row in the fourth, an American league record. Walker, Perkins and "Bing" Miller, the guilty parties, Walker getting two, one in the first and another in the fourth. Who won? Don't make us laugh.

Howard Ehmke had one of his good days and the Detroit Tigers sent the Browns into a tie for first place with a 3 to 1 defeat.

The Giants made it four straight from the Braves and took a firmer hold on first place while the Braves took a firmer hold on last place. The Giants treated their old pal, Rube Marquard, very harshly. They sent him away from there in exactly one third of an inning. Ryan managed to keep the Braves' hits scattered.

It took Coveleskie to break the Indians losing streak of five straight and three Chicago pitchers, Russell, Wilkinson and McWeeny, to help along the good work. The Pole was hit hard, but nothing came of it.

Couch, holding Pittsburgh to five hits, made the Pirates lie down and be good, while the Reds won by the top heavy score of 9 to 2.

IRON WORK

Goudie & Goudie Have Plant at 514 East Broadway; Samples of Work to Be Seen

Residents of Glendale have heard of architecture, sculpture and one-hundred-and-one other things for the betterment of buildings, but there still remains one to be described that is as difficult as any of the rest and little famed.

Old as the age after which it was named, ornamental iron work lends a touch of beauty and artistry that is satisfyingly substantial, yet at a price perfectly within reason. The more one sees of it, the more it is coveted and the only trouble is to find artisans who can efficiently handle the work.

Serves Whole Lifetime

R. C. Goudie and son, R. C., Jr., have established themselves in a plant at the rear of 514 East Broadway and are forging a name for the firm of Goudie & Goudie that will likely live for generations as such ornamentation as they accomplish serves whole lifetimes.

So it is that orders for replacements of the work done today will not be received for twenty, thirty, fifty years, or maybe a century, it is that permanent. A good sample of their work may be seen in the remodeled McElroy building at 109-111-113 South Brand boulevard where the second story windows are protected by grille effect.

The Glendale Ornamental Iron Works specializes on window grilles, porch and balcony railings, porch lamps and lanterns, gates, fences and special fixtures of all kinds, including Spanish and Italian lighting effects for outside wear.

In Past, Present and Future

It would be impossible to name over the many things which come in the category of this line, for it is forge and foundry work combined with art, lost art and futuristic stuff that cannot be found in books, other than pictures.

Messrs. Goudie would be pleased for anyone interested in this rather quaint business to call at their workshops and see the busy crew at work, to hear the bellows blowing, to see the red hot iron being twisted into every conceivable shape to suit the taste of the customer. Then, and then only, will there be a keener realization of the possibilities of ornamental iron in building.

RADIO EXPLAINED
By E. H. LEWIS
INSTRUCTOR NEW YORK Y. M. C. A. RADIO SCHOOL

CONTINUOUS OR UNDAMPED OSCILLATIONS
The word "oscillations" is used when very high frequency alternating current is thought of in radio work. Undamped oscillations are then oscillations which have no damping, but whose amplitudes are continuous so long as the current flows. In the case of a swinging pendulum, the swings can be kept of continuous amplitude—that is, all ways of the same amplitude as long as the taps applied are all of the same force and are applied once for each swing in each direction. Like- wise the undamped electrical oscillations must be the result of regularly applied electrical force. Otherwise, some of the energy in the circuit will be lost in overcoming resistance each alternation, and none will be provided to replace it.

Continuous oscillations are absolutely necessary in radiotelephony for satisfactory transmission. They may also, of course, be used for radiotelegraphy. When these un- damped oscillations flow in a suitable circuit, such as an antenna, they create waves in the invisible medium known as "ether." And since the oscillations are undamped, the ether vibrations or oscillations are also undamped. The ether vibrations are really waves quite similar to those which can be seen in water, except that they travel faster and have dif- ferent lengths.

Now, it will be remembered, es- pecially by those who have traveled on ships, that the height (or ampli- tude) of the water waves has a great deal to do with the motion of a boat. The higher the waves the more vio- lently the boat rolls. Also, if the height of each wave is always the same the boat may "rock" with in- creasing violence in a regular man- ner until it is rolling many degrees each side of its normal position. But, if the waves diminish in height after the first has passed, the boat finally comes to a steady position, at least for a few moments. The water waves are caused by some force or forces applied to the water in a man- ner similar to radio waves in the ether. The boat may be likened to the radio receiver, in which case would there then be maximum dis- turbance in the receiver at a long distance, with damped or with un- damped waves? With undamped waves, of course, since less of their energy would be lost in passing from one place to a distant place. Un- damped radio waves suffer less ab- sorption and travel greater distances than damped waves, with less loss of energy. The energy of each wave is the same as that of every other.

A NOVEL GRID LEAK RESISTANCE
There are a number of fixed grid leak resistances available to the ra- dio constructor. They take all shapes and are of practically all sizes. The one illustrated appears to have some very good features and is at any rate novel in construction.

The resistance unit itself is a film of pure platinum or an alloy of plat- inum and gold chemically deposited upon a strip of clear mica. The length, width and thickness of the panel mounting or for rough hand- making, as in an experimental labora- tory. If for panel mounting, where it will be free from injury, the me- tallic deposit is protected by a second sheet of mica. If the unit will meet with rough usage, it may be procured assembled inside a brass protecting case.

The resistance of the unit is abso- lutely unchangeable and may be used as a standard. It is not affected by external conditions and is absolutely non-inductive. The capacity is neg- ligible, due to the construction.

The temperature coefficient of the resistor metal is approximately the same as that for copper. If a high temperature coefficient is not per- missible, a number of these units may be connected in parallel to re- duce the temperature rise.

The style designated for panel mounting is very easy to install and takes very little space. Although platinum is used in construction, the price of the units is quite low, so that they are available to the aver- age radio experimenter.

J. Harrison Smith's
Contest Story Today

By GEORGE VAN SANDS
Radio Editor Evening News
We have with us today J. Harrison Smith, of 939 East Lexington Drive, who submits the following comprehensive discourse on radio, as an entry to the prize radio story con- test being conducted this week by The Evening News:

"In the history of the United States there has perhaps been no new development nationally popularized in such a short time as radio tele- phony. Whereas most inventions have required years to develop, radio has sprung up overnight, so sud- denly has it become the craze that radio manufacturers are swamped by an unprecedented demand for sets.

"Radio waves were first discov- ered by Hertz in 1887, and are often called Hertzian waves. Marconi suc- ceeded in adapting them to commu- nication, and was the first man to succeed in transmitting signals across the Atlantic. From this eventful beginning radio telegraphic communication grew steadily; it be- came indispensable as a means of communication between ships and land. In all probability no one would have survived the Titanic dis- aster had it not been for the radio operator.

"But this method of communica- tion did not become popular as it in- volved the use of code. It remained for Dr. Lee De Forest to invent the audion, the most versatile and most widely adaptable device known to the radio art. Not only is the au- dion capable of detecting and am- plifying radio waves, but is also ca- pable of generating them. This re- markable property of the audion was widely studied and extensively used by the United States signal corps in the world war.

"Public approval of radio tele- phony is sufficient proof of its suc- cess as a new means of communica- tion; that it is not a passing fad, but a practical necessity is easy to see. Removing time as a factor in com- munication, and obviating the neces- sity of stringing thousands of miles of wire, it is economical; a scientific development, it is correct in prin- ciple. Penetrating to the farthest cor- ners of the earth, it will rival the press as a means of publicity, and will place the voice of the world in every home. Stock exchanges, no- tably the New York stock exchange receive their reports and broadcast quotations by radio. Business men print their radio call letters as well as their telephone numbers upon their letterheads.

"The future of radio seems even more promising than the present. Proven a success in transmitting sound waves, it will undoubtedly be adapted to the transmission of light waves, X-rays and others. Success- ful experiments have already been performed in the transmission of photographs, by M. Belouin, a French scientist, and since it is pos- sible to transmit light and sound waves, we may hope to ultimately transmit power by radio."

Question: As radio is making such rapid strides, would you advise the present purchase of the ex- pensive type of receiver that in all like- hood may be considered out of date in a few months?—T. W. F., Glendale.

Answer: I believe you would be perfectly justified in investing in a wireless telephone receiver of ex- pensive type at this time, for the fol- lowing reason: Such receiver is of the regenerative audion vacuum tube type and while, as you say, rapid strides are being made daily in ra- dio, nevertheless it is all based upon this audion principle of sound wave reception, and a receiver built upon this principle of radio will, in itself, not become obsolete; improvements and refinements are bound to be made, but as they appear on the mar- ket as proven success they can be at- tached and become a part of such a receiver. Start in with this type of receiver and you can add to it as oc- casion and inclination demand, the same as you would make additions to your library.

Question: Have been reading your articles with much interest, and note in one of the recent issues of The Evening News in the question and answer department you advised the purchase of a cheap crystal set as the best teacher for a beginner; will you please explain more fully why such a set makes a good teacher?—M. F., Glendale.

Answer: I advised a cheap crystal set mostly for the reason of its cheap purchase price, and while such a set is nothing more or less than a toy, nevertheless it has untold educa- tional value to a person beginning to become interested in radio, and it is almost an impossibility to buy such a set, install it in your home and the printed directions that come with it, and attempt to tune in with it, with- out absorbing more practical knowl- edge of radio than would be possible to get out of a highly scientific text-book in the same length of time, and there are just enough possibilities in such a cheap set that the average person will grasp it easily, and not be inclined to become bewildered as he is apt to be if the whole story of radio is forced on him all at once by trying to get it out of some scientific text-book. Why, half these boys running around the street know as much, if not more, about radio than the "experts," and where did they get their knowledge on the subject? Was talking to one of these boys the other day, and I asked him how he happened to come to make his set and where and how did he come by the necessary knowl- edge, and he told me that one of his boy friends in the next block had a set, and he was not going to have this boy "have anything on him" so he sent away to some outfit back in Chicago for some parts, and they sent them back to him with printed directions as to how to make it, with a couple of blue prints explaining how to wire it properly, and he just followed those directions and he really has made a dandy set and to

Wizard Home Radio
Set Proves Popular

The Wizard Home radio receiving set is making its debut in Glendale this week, and is quite practical in a receiving radius of fifty miles, which permits you to hear the Ca- lifornia conversations as well as the ethereal entertainment broadcasted each day from Los Angeles. It is possible to obtain the ball scores, crop and weather reports, sermons, sacred concerts, grand opera, latest music, speeches, etc., in this manner.

Already reservations have been made for Wizard sets by relatives of bed-ridden people who think it is the greatest idea of a century. This particular home set uses a crystal detector and needs no storage bat- tery or electric light attachment. All that is necessary is to hoist the aerial somewhere near and with 20 min- utes' work you will be enjoying all the pleasures of radio and maybe more, too, for the set is so simple that it is fool proof.

Speaking of the Wizard home set, the price of which is within the reach of all, Mr. Benson says, "These crys- tal sets with special windings and supersensitive detectors cannot be equalled for the results with the sim- plicity and small cost. I invite the public to inspect those we have on hand at our store. No parts for amateurs' equipment will be hand- led."

If a gentle ground-dove or turtle- dove is seen strutting along on the top of a home in Barbados, it is a sure sign of death to the inmates.

hear him talk on the subject, you would think his middle name was Marconi; and I don't believe the kid has ever been outside of Los Angeles county, which all goes to show that you do not have to spend several years in college and a post-graduate course over in Vienna to gain the necessary knowledge to enjoy the benefits of a radio set right in your own home here in Glendale.

LOTS OF RECORDS ESTABLISHED IN WORLD SERIES

Going Over Facts and Figures In Last Year's Bout Shows Much of Interest

By HOWARD MCILLIS
Sporting Editor The Evening News

In going over the statistics of last year's world series between New York's two major league entries—the Giants and the Yankees—it is observed that a larger number of world's records was made than in any title series played during recent baseball history. In all there were sixteen new marks set up in those memorable eight contests in which the Giants came back after two shutouts and topped the title. Four of those sixteen records were established in connection with attendance and gate receipts, while the remaining twelve were made up by the players.

A few of the records established in 1921 are as follows:

First club to win a world series after losing the first two games—New York Giants.

First club to shut out opponents in first two contests—New York Yankees.

Greatest total receipts at a single game—$119,007 in the third game, on October 7. Previous one-game record—$101,768, in sixth game of series in Cincinnati on October 6, 1919.

Lots of Money, What?

Total receipts for series—$900,233. Previous record—$649,200 in eight games between Chicago White Sox and Cincinnati Nationals in 1919.

Greatest total attendance—269,977. Old mark was established in 1912 in the eight-game series between the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox, when 251,991 people witnessed the play.

Most runs in a single inning—Eight, made by the Giants in the seventh inning of the third game on Friday, October 7, against Pitchers Quinn, Collins and Rogers of the Yankees. Best previous mark was also made by the Giants, it being in 1912, when they crossed the plate seven times against "Smoky Joe" Wood of the Boston Americans in the first inning of the game on October 15 of that year.

First time triple and double by one player in one inning—by Young of the Giants, in the seventh inning of the third game on October 7.

Best batting average ever made by player in first three games of world series—Frisch of Giants, .700.

Stick Work Is Heavy

Least number of hits by both clubs in one game—Five (three against Neft of the Giants and two against Hoyt of the Yankees), in the second game, Thursday, October 6. The best previous record was six and was established in the third game of the 1906 series in Chicago when Pfister of the Cubs allowed four safeties and Walsh of the White Sox allowed two.

First time three games without a base on balls—Carl Mays in the first, fourth and seventh games. The previous record was one base on balls, made by Christy Mathewson of the Giants in the first, third and fifth games against the Philadelphia Athletics in 1905.

First series in which two players on the same club stole home—McNally in the sixth game and Bob Messel in the second game, for the Yankees.

Receipts of Glendale postoffice have jumped on account of Postal Improvement Week, it was stated by George Hallett, assistant postmaster, this morning.

"We are getting considerable constructive criticism," Postmaster H. Ripley Jackson added, "and we are convincing many of the skeptical that we are giving them all of the service the department will permit, but that's no reason we are not going to get more."

The school children will visit the postoffice this afternoon and tomorrow. Everybody else is welcome, too.

A whole column of publicity was obtained for Glendale in the Postal Record of current issue.

NOT SEEN BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Thirty-seven wives and children of men now confined in federal prisons for violation of the espionage act arrived here to plead with President Harding for their release, but while they were speeding from the Union station to the White House in automobiles, it was officially announced the president would not see them.

"Our present plans contemplate camping in Washington until the husbands and fathers of these people are released," Mrs. Kate Richard O'Hare of St. Louis, who is in charge of the party, declared.

$75,000,000 FOR ROADS

WASHINGTON, May 3.—By a vote of 239 to 31, the house passed a bill appropriating $75,000,000 to aid the several states in building and maintaining road during the fiscal year 1923-24.

WALLY REID'S NEW PICTURE RIOT OF FUN AND SPEED

Film Is Most Exciting of All His Famous Automobile Stories; Is Declared

Everything broke loose at the T. D. & L. theatre yesterday with Wally Reid's latest picture, "Across the Continent," no doubt the most exciting of all his famous automobile stories. The popular playhouse shook with continuous applause as the audiences in breathless suspense watched through the racing scenes of the picture.

Hats off—the combination of talent accountable for "Across the Continent"—Wally Reid, Theodore Roberts, Rosen, the director, and Byron Morgan, author, is unbeatable. It's a great show and literally takes the onlookers off their feet. See it—no better entertainment has ever come to Glendale, says Manager Allan.

Another very pleasing number was the organ solo by George Olsen, playing "Land of Lullabies," composed by Grant Rymal, who sang the selection. "Fresh from the Farm," a very amusing comedy with Bobby Vernon featured; latest news weekly and "Jungle Dances" complete this extra super-fine program.

SOCIETY FILM WITH NOVEL TWIST AT GLENDALE TODAY

Woman and Two Men Have Leading Parts in Picture, 'Grand Larceny'

"Grand Larceny," a Goldwyn picture, is the new offering coming to the Glendale Theatre today. It is a story of two men and a woman, by Albert Payson Terhune, in which one of the men commits what the other calls an act of Grand Larceny in stealing the affections of the other's wife.

A novel twist to this type of society story is introduced by the attitude of the woman, who is the innocent victim of what is apparently a chain of evil-looking circumstances. She does not acquiesce in the theory that degrades her to the level of things that may be stolen; and in the end, forces upon both men the recognition of the fact that she belongs to herself.

The story is beautifully presented by an excellent cast, including Claire Windsor and Elliott Dexter.

Pathe News, Aesop's Fables Modernized and one of those smiling Sunshine comedies, "Try and Get It," complete the bill.

Latest Victor Records Popular for Dancing

The latest Victor Dance releases specialize on several of the country's most popular dance orchestras, the Benson Orchestra of Chicago playing three complete records of its own, while Paul Whiteman and His Orchestra present five separate fox trots by themselves on three separate records, sharing in one case with Club Royal orchestra of New York.

You can be forgiven if dances like "My Mammy Knows" and "Angel Child" set you strutting off, because they contain elements new even to the Benson soundings. They'll do fine for the Scandal Walk—a step reminiscent of the dancing master in "Madame Sans-Gene."

Two more varieties of fox trot that will find enthusiastic devotees are "Ten Little Fingers and Ten Little Toes," and "In Bluebird Land," by the Bensons. The first opens with a crash, develops a long piano duet, and heads up into some interesting brass and woodwind conversations. "In Bluebird Land" includes a brilliant whistling chorus.

The Scandal Walk (there's nothing scandalous about it) calls for a new kind of music. "Jimmy (I Love You)" played by the Whiteman's on a new Victor Record for May, has the daintiness of quality demanded by it, opening with the "sea-motif" from "Scheherazade." Soon it lapses into the fox trot proper, with some sax and regulation band effects. "After the Rain" on the reverse is brilliant, metallic, with lovely, soft, contrasting passages.

The nest of the pheasant is, usually, merely a litter of grass and leaves.
